2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final. He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.

4. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid on or before delivery, in default of which the Metropolitan Art Association will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.
5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lot will be delivered during the sale.
6. All lots will be exposed for public exhibition in The Anderson Galleries before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and the Metropolitan Art Association will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and makes no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, without recourse. But upon receiving before the date of sale expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, the Metropolitan Art Association will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.
7. Terms Cash. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and all such lots as remain uncleared after twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, will be re-sold by either private or public sale at such time as the Metropolitan Art Association shall determine, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such re-sale it shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale together with all the expenses incurred thereby. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of the Metropolitan Art Association to enforce the contract with the buyer, without such re-sale.
8. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

*From the Scheikevitch Collection.

265. REMBRANDT WITH A FLAT CAP AND SLASHED VEST. B. 26.

Etching about 1638. First state before the re-etching of Rembrandt's signature. Very beautiful impression of this scarce etching.

266. ABRAHAM ENTERTAINING THE ANGELS. B. 29,

Etching 1656. Very beautiful proof of the only state, the burr showing on the deep lines and acid marks on the extremity of the plate. Rarely met with in such fine condition and with margin.

267. THE ANGEL APPEARING TO THE SHEPHERDS. B. 44.

Etching, 1634. Third state (the completed state.) With margin and on paper with a water-mark of a coat of arms. Unusually fine proof; the arches of the bridge, the distant landscape and the reflection in the water clearly seen; in later states these are obscured. Very rare in this state. From the Webster Collection.

*"In the earliest and best impressions the arches of the bridge in the left distance are well defined. There is a singular beauty about the whole of this background which is entirely lost in impressions from the worn plate; the water, the wooded bank, and the town on the hill are all exquisitely rendered, and the effect of the unnatural light in which they are seen, a reflection of the Heavenly Glory like a flash of summer lightning, is most wonderful." . . . "There is an intense reality of conception about the whole which at once removes it from vulgarity and shows the consummate powers of the master."—Middleton.

268. THE STAR OF THE KINGS. B. 113.

Etching about 1652. Good impression, rich in the shadows but yet allowing the background of Amsterdam houses to be seen. Impressions usually met with have this background obscured.

*From the Artaria Collection.

269. REMBRANDT DRAWING FROM A MODEL. B. 192.
Etching about 1647. Superb impression of the second state on paper with the fool's-cap water-mark.

*From the Dighton, Chalon and Danby Seymour Collections.

270. ACADEMIC FIGURES OF MEN. B. 194.
Etching about 1646. Very fine impression of the first state showing the acid marks and failures in biting in places. On soft Dutch paper with water-mark of a large coat of arms crowned. With margin.

*Rembrandt for this used an early copper on which he had etched a very charming Dutch interior with a mother playing with a child in a go-cart. In later and worn impressions this scene can be scarcely distinguished, and the importance of early proofs is in having this background clear and distinct, as in this copy. It is scarcely necessary to point out that the scene of the mother and child is one of the most beautiful etchings of Rembrandt and much more valuable and interesting than the two academic figures, etched on the left side. From the Peoli Collection.
